

24TH ANNUAL CALIFORNIA INTERNATIONAL MARATHON & RELAY ENTRANTS

HOW TO USE THIS ENTRANTS' LIST

This is a list of the runners' bib numbers in numerical order followed by each runner's name. When you are out on the course on Sunday, find the name of the runner that corresponds to their bib number, and cheer the runner by name. This popular Sacramento Bee/CIM tradition allows spectators to add a personal touch to their cheers and the runners love it!

16TH ANNUAL CALIFORNIA INTERNATIONAL MARATHON RELAY CHALLENGE

The relay was initiated in response to the interest expressed by businesses, schools, running clubs, and other groups who wanted to have a team competition within the California International Marathon. Also, a steadily increasing number of runners wanted to participate in the marathon experience, have access to aid station support and enjoy the camaraderie of team competition, without committing to run the 26.2-mile distance. Divisions include open, high school, fitness club, running club, corporate, military, and the increasingly popular police/fire division that was introduced last year. Each division has categories for all men, all women and coed teams.

POLITICAL ANIMALS!

Two teams to watch this year are "Political Animals 1" and "Political Animals 2." Politicians run wild in the Sacramento area so it's a good fit to have relay teams comprised of local electeds. The teams this year have members from Sacramento, Folsom and Auburn who will be attempting to beat Lloyd Levine (#2016), a State Assemblyman for the 40th District. Lloyd is running the entire marathon distance. Races within the race like this make the Marathon Relay Challenge "Four Times the Fun!"

Political Animals 1 (#5399)

Folsom City Council - Jeff Starsky
 Auburn City Council - Bridget Powers
 Sacramento City Council - Ray Tretheway
 Sacramento City Council - Steve Cohn

Political Animals 2 (#5400)

CalTrans Director - Will Kempton
 West Sacramento City Council - Oscar Villegas
 Auburn Recreation District - Gordon Ainsleigh
 Sacramento City Council - Kevin McCarty

SACRAMENTO CITY COUNCILMAN STEVE COHN WILL BE A "POLITICAL ANIMALS 1" TEAM MEMBER.
